DATE: April 11, 2017 A.D.

SUBJECT: five (5) pending Federal Tort Claims (DOJ Standard Forms 95)

Greetings Ms. Swann and Ms. Krcha:

To prevent any further administrative confusion concerning my five (5) pending Federal Tort Claims (U.S. DOJ Standard Forms 95), please take note of the following Tort Claim Summary as published on the Internet, with hyper-links to each separate documentation set:

<http://supremelaw.org/cc/hill/tort.claim.summary.htm>

Initial Tort Claim (12/08/2014):

(1) U.S. Marshals Service $65,725,905 USD

Derivative Tort Claims (7/11/2016):

(2) Executive Office for U.S. Attorneys: $24,750,000 USD

(3) Administrative Office of the U.S Courts: $78,375,000 USD

(4) Internal Revenue Service: $16,500,000 USD

(5) U.S. Bureau of Prisons: $70,125,000 USD

Grand Total: $255,475,905 USD

A hyper-link at the top of each Table of Contents directs your Internet browsers to the related documentation and correspondence generated after each Federal Tort Claim was delivered to the corresponding Federal agency.

According to our reading of one Organization Chart for the U.S. Department of Justice, as published on the Internet, Attorney General Jeff Sessions has Principal legal responsibility and authority over the following Federal agencies:

U.S. Marshals Service (see Tort Claim 1 of 5 above)
Executive Office for U.S. Attorneys (see Tort Claim 2 of 5 above)
Federal Bureau of Prisons (see Tort Claim 5 of 5 above)

Likewise, Secretary of the Treasury Steven T. Mnuchin has Principal responsibility and authority over the U.S. Department of the Treasury, and the IRS via the Commissioner of Internal Revenue:

Internal Revenue Service (see Tort Claim 4 of 5 above)

The Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts does not appear in any Organization Chart for the Executive Branch, because the U.S. Courts are found in an entirely different Branch of the Federal Government:

Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts (see Tort Claim 3 of 5)

Nevertheless, all hirelings employed by the Judicial Branch of the Federal Government are subject to supervision and investigation by the appropriate officials within the U.S. Department of Justice, for reasons including but not limited to any evidence that those hirelings continue to engage in a pattern of racketeering activities in ongoing violations of the Federal criminal statutes at 18 U.S.C. 1961 et seq.

In light of our intent to request referral of all five (5) pending Federal Tort Claims supra to alternative dispute resolution ("ADR"), we respectfully request that any and all further documentation which your offices receive concerning same should be forwarded as follows:

Tort Claim 1 of 5 (USMS) to Attorney General Jeff Sessions
Tort Claim 2 of 5 (EOUSA) to Attorney General Jeff Sessions
Tort Claim 3 of 5 (AOUSC) to Attorney General Jeff Sessions supra
Tort Claim 4 of 5 (IRS) to Treasury Secretary Steven T. Mnuchin
Tort Claim 5 of 5 (BOP) to Attorney General Jeff Sessions

The referral from Ms. Swann to Ms. Krcha dated March 21, 2017, did not comply with the above instructions. Upon much closer examination, our submissions dated February 27, 2017 and March 9, 2017 had already been mailed to the Attorney General. As such, we saw no harm in forwarding copies of same to the Secretary of the Treasury.

Thank you very much for following these Referral Instructions.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Paul Andrew Mitchell
