The Community Corrections, Parole and Probation Department provides supervision to adult offenders on parole, probation, compact supervision and conditional discharge, in addition to providing presentence investigation services to the Courts. The program provides sentencing alternatives and aims at enhancing public safety by assisting the offender in learning the skills to solve the problems which lead to criminal activity. The following department programs are currently in effect: Field Services; Alcohol/Drug Treatment; Mental Health Services & Plethysmograph; Drug Treatment; Subsidy; Automation & Telecommunication; Electronic Monitoring; Community Corrections Work Crew Supervisor, Community Service; Custody Work Crew Supervisor; DUII supervision; Support Services; and Training/Polygraph.

Assessor	Courthouse - Room 206	(541) 440-4222	Roger Hartman, Assessor
The County Assessor is an elected official with a four-year term of office. The County Assessor's chief responsibilities are to appraise property; to maintain ownership maps and indexes of property; to approve and monitor special farm and forest assessments and all exemption programs; and to prepare an assessment roll and tax roll. The County Assessor does not determine the amount of taxes to be levied. Local budget committees within cities, the County and special districts determine dollar amounts needed in tax levies. The required amounts are placed on the tax rolls by the County Assessor. Assessment: The Assessor's Office is a valuable source of information on all property located in Douglas County and it offers two computer terminals for public information use. The Reedsport Annex also has a computer terminal for public use with information being provided by the receptionist in the Sheriff's Department. Part-time help is funded by the Assessor's Office to offset the time required to provide comprehensive countywide public assistance in the Reedsport area.

Building	Justice Bldg - Room 106	(541) 440-4559	Bill Clemens, Building Official
The Building Department was established in 1974 and is administered by the Building Official. The main function of the Building Department is to enforce the structural, plumbing, mechanical, fire and life safety, and mobile home placement codes as required by the State Building Codes Agency. Members of this department review plans for all construction projects and note the necessary changes on the plans prior to issuing the building permit. Building permit fees are figured on the square-footage of the structure to be built or remodeled and are taken from a State fee schedule.

With the exception of several cities, the Building Department is responsible for the building permits and site inspections for all areas of the County. The Building Department works closely with people in the process of building or remodeling a home, or constructing a commercial or industrial development.

Building Facilities	Justice Building	(541) 440-6001	Director
The Building Facilities Department is responsible for new construction, repair, remodeling, maintenance, and cleaning of the County's buildings and grounds. Major buildings include the Courthouse, Justice Building, Reedsport Annex, Annex 1, and the Health Center. The Department maintains the heating and cooling system (HVAC), fire suppression system, environmental safety, plumbing, roofing, electrical, and mechanical systems for all County buildings.

Clerk	Courthouse - CH124	(541) 440-4324	Patricia Hitt, Clerk
The County Clerk is an elected official with a four-year term of office. Many duties of the Clerk are set by state statute. To carry out these duties, the Clerk's Office has four major divisions. The Recording Division keeps a permanent public record of all official county records including real estate transactions, liens, plats and partitioning maps, and mining claim locations. The Elections Division is responsible for maintaining registered voter data, and for conducting and administering all elections in the County; which include the Primary and General elections and the Special District election. The Vital Records Division issues birth certificates and death certificates. The Archives Division insures all records are preserved permanently, or for some records, maintained for a specific period of time. In addition, the County Clerk acts as Clerk for the County Board of Property Tax Appeals; maintains the permanent record of the official proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners, responds to requests for mental health records, and issues marriage licenses (and may perform marriage ceremonies). The Clerk's Office promotes public confidence by: providing courteous and effective service in a timely manner, and ensuring the highest degree of integrity in all aspects of our work.

Commissioners	Courthouse - CH217	(541) 440-4201	3 Elected Commissioners:
			Gary Leif leif@co.douglas.or.us

			Tim Freeman freeman@co.douglas.or.us Chris Boice boice@co.douglas.or.us

The Board of Commissioners (Board) is the County governing body. They provide a direct link between the citizens of Douglas County and their County Government. The Board is responsible for: approving ordinances (County laws); adopting the County budget; setting standards for the use of County property; appointing non-elected officials, boards, commissions, and committees; and overseeing the operation of County departments with appointed department heads.

The Board consists of three full-time members. Each member is elected for a four-year term of office and paid a salary established by the Budget Committee. The Board elects its own chairman on an annual basis. A quorum of two constitutes a majority vote and is necessary to decide any questions before the Board.

Regular Board meetings are generally scheduled for each Wednesday at 9:00 a.m. in Room 216 of the County Courthouse. However, on an occasional basis, regular Board meetings are also held in the various cities of Douglas County.

The County budget is approved by the Budget Committee, which consists of six members: the Board of Commissioners and three citizens appointed by the Board. Citizen members are appointed for three-year terms. The Budget Committee meets for several days each year to review the proposed budget and to formulate and operating plan which sets forth a balanced budget.

County Counsel	Courthouse - Room 321	(541) 440- 4375	Paul Meyer

The Office of the County Counsel provides legal services for Douglas County Government. The County Counsel advises the Board of Commissioners and other County officials as to their duties and responsibilities as established in statutes and laws. A representative from the County Counsel attends all regular meetings of the Board of Commissioners and other boards as requested. The County Counsel represents the County in legal matters including the enforcement of County Ordinances. Counsel staff prepare and review all contracts between the County and other public agencies or private parties.

Justice of the Peace	Canyonville	(541) 839-4389	Machelle Mayfield, Judge
	Drain	(541) 836-2814	Russell Trump, Judge
	Glendale	(541) 832-2101	Candace Hissong, Judge
	Reedsport	(541) 271-4868	Stephen Miller, Judge

There are four Justice Courts in Douglas County. These courts have jurisdiction to handle traffic offenses, violations, small claims, civil suits, FED cases (landlord-tenant evictions), and criminal cases up to a Class A misdemeanor. In addition, Justice Courts may hold preliminary hearings, issue arrest and search warrants, and conduct felony arraignments. Justice Courts do not handle felony cases, nor do they deal with libel, slander, or disputes over title to property. Civil cases heard by the Justice Courts involve disputes between parties, and are limited up to sums of $10,000. A Justice of the Peace may also perform marriage ceremonies anywhere in the State of Oregon.

The Justice of the Peace is in charge of the Justice Court and is elected for a six-year term by voters in the justice district. There are four justice districts in Douglas County with courts in Glendale, Canyonville, Drain, and Reedsport. Justices of the Peace must be registered voters in the County in which they are elected, but they are not required to be attorneys.

Justice Courts possess the same scope of responsibility as the former State District Courts. The primary function of Justice Courts is to relieve case load pressure from the Circuit Courts in Roseburg, and to serve the outlying areas of the County. Justice Courts are not State Courts as they are funded by the County.

Juvenile	Courthouse - Room CH 105A	(541) 440- 4409	Aric Fromdahl , Director

The Juvenile Department is responsible for promoting public safety by holding youth who have committed law violations accountable for their delinquent acts, providing youth with opportunities to restore their victims and the community, and for offering reformation services to assist youth in becoming productive and responsible citizens. The Department works closely with the court, law enforcement agencies, schools, community members, service providers, and other stakeholders to fulfill its duties. The Department also assists the District Attorney's Office in processing cases of child abuse and neglect through the court system.

The Juvenile Department consists of the following divisions:

- The Accountability Services Division screens all cases referred by law enforcement to determine the appropriate levels of service and reformation interventions needed.
